2. How super works

About super
Superannuation is money you save throughout your working life for your retirement, and is partly compulsory. Understanding your super early will give you greater control and the confidence to make the best financial choices for you.

You’re already saving for your retirement thanks to the compulsory Superannuation Guarantee (SG) your employer is required to contribute into your super account.

Choosing your fund
Most people can choose which super fund they’d like their SG contributions paid into. Sometimes your conditions of employment will decide which fund. If you don’t have a choice, or you don’t tell your employer which fund you’d like your super to go into, it will be paid into a MySuper product.

* As at 31 December 2019
Making contributions
Super is a tax-effective way to save for your future thanks to tax concessions provided by the government.

There are different types of contributions Rest can receive on your behalf, like employer contributions, voluntary contributions and co-contributions.

You can boost your super even further by:

- contributing extra money from your before-tax salary. This is called 'salary sacrifice' and may reduce the amount of tax you pay.
- putting money you have saved outside super into your Acumen account. You may be eligible for a government co-contribution if you do this.

There are limits on how much you can accumulate in super, and how much you can contribute each year.

There are also rules and limits about when you can take money out of your super, like when you reach a certain age or can't work due to permanent disability, and how much you can withdraw. To find out more, including information on withdrawals from super, visit ato.gov.au/individuals/super

To make an after-tax contribution, simply complete the 'Voluntary contribution' form at rest.com.au/forms and return it to us.

Consolidate your super
You might be able to help your retirement savings grow by transferring super you have in other funds into your Acumen account, and save on paying multiple fees.

You can find your other super accounts and transfer them into Rest at supermatch.rest.com.au

Before combining your super you should check how it might affect your insurance in your other funds and if they have any other fees. If you have any questions we recommend you have a chat with a financial adviser.

Temporary residents
If you depart Australia and don’t claim your super, we will transfer your super to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) six months from the date your visa expired or you left Australia (whichever occurs later).

You can claim your super directly from the ATO. Under relief from the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) we are not required to send you an exit statement when we transfer your super to the ATO.

Transferring low balances to ATO
Unless your Member Guide states otherwise, if your balance is under $6,000 on 30 June or 31 December each year and you do not have insurance, your account balance will be transferred to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) if there's no activity on your account, such as making a contribution or switching investment options over the past 16 months.

3. Benefits of investing with Acumen

4. Risks of super

Acumen is designed to help you save for your retirement. Like all investments, there are investment risks. Super funds generally invest in a range of asset classes - for example, cash, bonds, property and shares – that have different levels of risk. The likely investment return, and the risk of a negative return, is different for each investment option depending on the underlying mix of assets in that option. Assets with the highest potential return over the longer-term (such as shares), may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. Acumen offers a number of different investment options with different levels of risk. Different strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy.

When considering your investment in super, it is important to understand that:
• the value of investment options can go up and down
• future returns may differ from past returns
• returns are not guaranteed, will vary, and you may lose some of your money
• superannuation, social security and tax laws may change in the future
• the amount of your future super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to adequately provide for your retirement.

The appropriate level of risk for you will vary depending on a range of factors including your age, investment timeframe, where your other assets are invested and how comfortable you are with the possibility of a negative return in some years.

Other significant investment risks include:
• market risk – investment returns may be affected by economic conditions, government regulations, market sentiment, international events and other factors
• company specific risk – an investment in a specific company may be affected by changes to the company such as loss of a big customer, changes in management and other internal and external factors
• currency risk – investments in international assets may be negatively affected by currency fluctuations
• interest rate risk – changes in interest rates in Australia and overseas can have a direct or indirect impact upon the value and return of all types of assets
• liquidity risk – from time to time some investments may not be easily converted to cash due to abnormal or difficult market conditions.

5. How we invest your money

Acumen offers a range of investment options to suit our members’ different needs and financial objectives. Each option has a different level of risk and potential return. For example, the Core Strategy is designed for members looking for a balance between risk and return, with a wide asset allocation range.

You can choose one or a combination of different options to create your portfolio. As Acumen is a choice product, you must choose an investment option. There is no default investment option in Acumen.

You should read the important information about the risks of super before making a decision. Go to the ‘Investment Guide’ at rest.com.au/pds. The material relating to the risks of super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.
You can switch investment options online in MemberAccess, or by completing an ‘Application to make an investment choice’ form and returning it to Rest.

The Core Strategy investment option is designed for members looking for a balance between risk and return, with a wide asset allocation range. The Core Strategy has an exposure to the Australian shares asset class which may include companies listed in Australia but are based overseas. In addition, up to 10% of this asset class may be invested in stocks listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange.

1 This is what we use to determine asset allocation. It is also used to measure if the investment objective is met. It is not a guaranteed rate of return. Rest does not use the Return Target (shown in the Product Dashboard) to set the investment return objective.

2 The asset allocation will vary year to year within the ranges shown in brackets. This also means the allocation to defensive assets and growth assets will vary from time to time. We reserve the right to vary the asset allocations, including the benchmarks and ranges, of all or any of the investment options, introduce new options or close existing options without prior notice (where permitted by law).

3 More information about risk band and level and Standard Risk Measure can be found in the ‘Investment Guide’ available at rest.com.au/pds

4 Returns are quoted at 30 June each year after fees not directly charged to your account and taxes have been deducted. The returns stated are correct as at 30 June 2019.
6. Fees and costs

Consumer Advisory Warning

DID YOU KNOW?
Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return or if you leave Rest, by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE
If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

The calculator on the ASIC website at moneysmart.gov.au can be used to calculate the effect of fees and costs on your super account balance.

Fees and costs
This section provides information about the main fees and costs for an Acumen member wholly invested in the Core Strategy which are deducted directly from your account or from investment returns. The investment fees for our other investment options are different. Similar information is included in other Product Disclosure Statements so you can compare Acumen’s fees and costs with those for other funds or products. The following table shows a range of fees and costs – which vary depending on your sub-plan. The administration fees and insurance costs applying to your sub-plan will be contained within your Member Guide.

If your account balance is less than $6,000 at the end of the financial year, or when you leave Rest, the total combined amount of administration fees, investment fees and indirect costs charged to you is capped at 3% of your account balance for the year (or the period until you left). Any amount charged above the cap will be refunded, unless your Member Guide states otherwise.

Fees changes
All fees and charges are current and may be revised or adjusted by Rest from time to time. We may also introduce new fees. Where there is material or significant increase in fees or charges, we will give you at least 30 days prior notice, as required by law. This excludes investment related fees which the Trustee reviews regularly.

Note – Additional fees may apply. And, if you leave the superannuation entity, you may also be charged other fees and a buy/sell spread which also applies whenever you make a contribution, exit, rollover or investment switch. The buy/sell spread for exiting is 0%.

Financial advice fees
There’s usually no extra cost for simple advice and super questions - it’s part of being a member of Rest. For more complex advice, you’ll be charged a fee which will depend on the topic and your circumstances. This fee may be able to be paid out of super. We’ll always talk to you about this fee first, and the Statement of Advice will set out the details of the fees.

You should read the important information about fees and costs before making a decision. Go to the ‘Acumen Member Guide’ available in MemberAccess at rest.com.au and the ‘Additional information on fees and costs (Acumen)’ available at rest.com.au/pds. The material relating to fees and costs may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

7. How super is taxed
There are a number of ways super is taxed. As the tax treatment of super is complex and may change from time to time, we recommend that you seek advice from a financial adviser, your accountant or tax agent.

You should provide us with your Tax File Number (TFN), otherwise a higher tax rate will apply to your contributions and may have an impact when you access your benefit.

Without your TFN, we will also:
- be unable to accept any personal contributions to your account
- have more difficulty tracing different super amounts in your name via the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) search facility (this could assist in ensuring you receive all your super benefits when you retire).

The following tax rules apply except if you exceed the before or after-tax contribution caps. If you exceed the contribution caps for super you will pay extra tax.
- Rest will pay the tax applying to your account directly to the ATO.
- Contributions into your super that are made from your before-tax salary are taxed at 15%.
- Contributions into your super made from your after-tax money are not taxed in the fund.
- Investment earnings are taxed at a maximum rate of 15%.
- Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are aged less than 60. Once you turn 60, you can withdraw your super tax free.

For information about how tax applies to super contributions, investment earnings and withdrawals go to rest.com.au/facts.
8. Insurance in your super

When you join Acumen, your employer may have elected to have insurance cover provided to you. The type and level of cover depends on what your employer has organised for you. The amount of default cover (if any) and the formula used to calculate this cover and premiums can be found in MemberAccess. To log into MemberAccess visit rest.com.au and follow the prompts. Unless your Member Guide states otherwise, insurance premiums are deducted from your Acumen account for this cover.

If your employer has organised default insurance for you, your cover will start (unless your Member Guide states otherwise) when:

• you are age 25 or over; and
• you have an account balance of $6,000 or more; and
• you are receiving mandatory employer contributions (like Superannuation Guarantee contributions).

If you are under age 25 or have an account balance under $6,000, you will be provided with default insurance cover on an opt-in basis only, until you meet eligibility.

The types of cover your employer may have organised for you within Acumen are:

• Death Only or Death and Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) cover, and/or
• Income Protection cover.

If your proposed cover exceeds the automatic acceptance level for your sub-plan (see your Member Guide for further details), you join outside eligibility requirements, or you wish to apply for voluntary cover, you will be required to provide evidence of your health satisfactory to the insurer.

The insurance premium for your cover generally depends on the amount of cover offered by your employer, any additional cover you request, your age, gender, occupation and, in the case of Income Protection cover, your salary, the waiting period and benefit period under your sub-plan. The range of annual premiums that may be deducted from your account is included in your sub-plan’s Member Guide and will vary based on the details listed above. An indicative range is between $0.15 to $25.33 per $1,000 of cover. Your employer may cover this cost.

Your Member Guide also includes the insurance cover available, level of cover, the maximum level of cover you can hold, when your cover ceases and the ability to change and/or cancel your cover, which varies between sub-plans.

Please note that unless you decline your insurance cover or it is cancelled, insurance premiums will be deducted from your Acumen account (unless paid by your employer).

Entitlement to insurance cover may be affected by the terms relating to eligibility for cover, cancelling insurance cover and the applicable conditions and exclusions of Acumen’s insurance cover.

If you have Income Protection insurance, it’s important to contact us if you’ve stopped working as you may no longer be eligible for IP cover.

If you make an insurance claim, we and the insurer will determine whether you are entitled to be paid an insurance benefit based on the terms of the relevant policy, the trust deed rules and the law.

Keep your insurance switched on

Unless your Member Guide states otherwise, your insurance will be cancelled if there’s no contribution made to your super account for 13 continuous months, and you don’t tell us you’d like to keep your insurance. To find out how you can keep your insurance active, visit go.rest.com.au/protect

Keep in touch

If you leave your job, or your personal circumstances change, let us know straight away. Any changes could impact your insurance cover. Also let us know if your contact details change, so you don’t miss out on receiving important information about your insurance.

You should read the important information about insurance cover, the premiums and eligibility for, cancellation of, conditions and exclusions of insurance cover, before making a decision. Go to the ‘Acumen Member Guide’ available in MemberAccess at rest.com.au The material relating to insurance in your super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account

1. Your employer will open the account for you. You will receive a welcome pack soon afterwards. If we have your electronic contact details such as your email address or mobile number, we will send your annual statement and other important information about your account to that address or mobile. If you would prefer us to send you this information by mail, you can let us know in MemberAccess or by calling us.

2. Read this PDS and the other important information referred to in this PDS.

3. Complete the ‘Application to make an investment choice’ form available from rest.com.au/forms and return the form to either your employer or Acumen.

4. Consider making a beneficiary nomination. You can make non-binding nominations in MemberAccess. To make a binding nomination, please complete the ‘Nomination of beneficiary’ form available at rest.com.au/forms

5. You or your employer can then start to make regular and/or ad hoc contributions into your account.

6. Once you have your member number, login to MemberAccess at rest.com.au to review your options, such as update your personal details, view your transaction history, annual statements and more.

Even though as a member of Acumen you do not have any cooling off rights, you can still rollover your superannuation to another fund at any time.

Minimum account balance for partial rollover

You are required to leave a minimum balance of $6,000 in your Acumen account if you roll out part of your super to another fund, make a withdrawal (if eligible) or transfer between Rest products.

Concerns and complaints

If you have a concern, please contact us straight away to see if we can assist. You can make a complaint by phone, email, letter or Live Chat. For more details, go to rest.com.au/complaint
